Conferences

Monday, November 30th and Thursday, December 3rd will be the dates for the parent/teacher conferences. A sign-up sheet will be sent soon for signups through google. Due to COVID I prefer just one parent, and only children if necessary. We can also do via Zoom if easier or more comfortable for you. Please note that everyone in attendance will need to wear a mask for the conference.

If you have any questions or neither of these dates will work for you please let me know asap. I am looking forward to meeting with everyone to discuss your child's progress with you!

Show & Tell

Please Note: If your child is not on the calendar this month for show and tell, they will be on the calendar in December.
